Bomb Threat Investigation at Amador Valley High School

At approximately 8:00 am a bomb threat was received via email by Amador Valley High School administrators. Pleasanton Police Officers worked with school district staff to conduct a search of the campus while students were temporarily evacuated from the facilities. No devices were located and students returned to classes within a short time. Pleasanton Police Department Detectives are investigating the incident. At this time there is no indication that this threat is associated with the previous threat. Anyone with information about this threat is encouraged to contact the police department or school district.
