Pleasanton Library's Third Annual

Dia de los Muertos Celebration and Altar Display

Creating an altar, or ofrenda, to honor the dead is one of the most important parts of Dia de los Muertos. Altars can be heartfelt and humorous, simple or extravagant. In addition to deceased family members and friends, altars are constructed for departed pets, celebrities, and historical figures.

Altar applications will be available at the library beginning October 1st. They will need to be completed and turned in to the library by Monday, October 31st at 9 pm.

There is space for 20 altars.

There will be a community ofrenda for all who wish to bring a picture, poem, flower, etc. in remembrance of a loved one. We will not be able to hold any items, so please do not bring things that are dear to you or valuable, copies will be fine.

- ◆ Catrina and Calavera costumes encouraged!
  - ◆ Drop in crafts for all ages
    - ◆ Music
  - ◆ Pan de Muerto and other refreshment

Please join us for this beautiful and colorful celebration!
