

Digital Storytelling Information Session

Tuesday, March 27
7 p.m. - 8 p.m.

Information Session Includes:

- What is California Listens
- How your story is relevant
- Invitation to participate
- Program Support & details

View others' stories at:

[www.storycenter.org/
stories](http://www.storycenter.org/stories)

For more information contact:
Sandy Silva,
ssilva@cityofpleasantonca.gov

Pleasanton Library • 400 Old Bernal Avenue

California Listens is a statewide Digital Storytelling project sponsored by the California State Library. The Pleasanton Library has been selected to host a California Listens Digital Storytelling Workshop and we invite you to share your story about life in California.

The library is looking for 15 participants willing to record their stories. To learn more about the project the library will be hosting an information session.

Come with questions!

