

PLEASANTON PUBLIC LIBRARY PRESENTS

A Photography Workshop by Simon Guan

After graduating with a journalism major, Simon Guan started to work as a photojournalist and editor for China Photography Magazine. In the 1980s and 1990s, he won 2nd place in the 15th China National Portrait Photography Competition, and 3rd place in the 16th National General Photography Competition. He is a member of the China Photography Association. He is now a guest professor for both the College of Art at Tsinghua University and the College of Media at Beijing University. He's been working in the field of photographic education for 29 years now. In this workshop, Mr. Guang will cover:

- Painting techniques for scenery photographs
- Tips and techniques for street photography
- Film photography in a digital age
- Questions and answers session

For more information about Simon Guan, please visit: <http://xinmin.photofans.cn>

April 10th, 2016 Sunday 2:00 PM

400 Old Bernal Ave. Pleasanton California 94566
(925) 931-3400